

Successful Transfer of Learning

by Sandra Ratcliff Daffron & Mary Wehby North

Orig. Ed. 2011 • 204 pp. • ISBN 978-1-57524-298-9 • $35.25

Daffron and North incorporate their findings of the transfer process from case studies of 20 professional groups with theories and models for reaching transfer of learning. In doing so, they find variables that program planners can incorporate in the planning process, in the characteristics and motivation of the learner, the design and delivery of the program, and in the role the organization plays, to create praxis for the professional. The resulting dialogue is a changing context as the professional group changes. Lessons for educators, directly from the field, fill this book. It is an invaluable handbook for successful transfer of learning for educators of adults.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Sandra Ratcliff Daffron is professor of adult education at Western Washington University with 27 years experience in continuing professional education and training. She received her B.S. degree in Home Economics Education from Eastern Illinois University, her M.Ed. degree in Special Education from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville, and her Ed.D. degree in Adult and Continuing Education from Northern Illinois University. She has served as the Executive Vice President of the American Judicature Society, a court reform organization, and served two years as a Senior Legal Educator and Co-Chief of Party for a USAID Rule of Law Project in the West Bank and Gaza. Daffron was Assistant Dean of IIT Kent College of Law, and has taught graduate classes at Virginia Commonwealth University, the Medical College of Virginia, and Northern Illinois University. Daffron has trained lawyers and judges for over 20 years and has provided continuing education programs for teachers, physicians, military trainers, and educators in correctional facilities.

Mary Wehby North is an international training consultant, specializing in job-related personal development classes and transfer of training strategies for professionals. She received a B.A. degree in Education at Wichita State University and a M.Ed. degree in Adult Education from Western Washington University. North is a trainer for Intrepid Learning Solutions and has been a Readiness Training Program Manager for Microsoft Corporation and a classroom teacher.

CONTENTS

- About the Authors
- Acknowledgments
- 1. Successful Transfer of Learning Model
- 2. Planning Process
- 3. Learner Characteristics and Motivation
- 4. Design and Delivery
- 5. Learning Context
- 6. Immediate Application and Workplace Environment
- 7. Strategies for Eliminating Barriers and Implementing Learning Transfer
- Appendix A, Appendix B, Appendix C
- References
- Index

KRIEGER PUBLISHING COMPANY

1-800-724-0025

